Happy birthday. Present will be sent under separate cover.
1873 Eagle every rare, but paying over $1000. is probably too much.

Your account balance is now $670.01, I don't mind waiting for the money so long as you are away skiing, but knowing you I thought you would send the kids home and stay over until the snow melts.

Hope to see you soon in Feb. Here is invoice for next 24 coins:

Mr. Stan Kesselman,
15 West 81st Street,
New York, New York 10024

Dear Stan:

Herewith is the bitter with the sweet. I am returning all of the coins you sent January 4th except for the following four, with comments following each:

1839-C $2½	Good	$140	I have a VF 25 for which you charged me $160. What's a fair price on this dog?
1853-D $5	VF 30	$140	Have a VF 20 at $90. If $90 for this one isn't fair, what is?
1863-S $5	Good	$110	What will you take?
1901-O $10	VF 35	$ 45	$40 ought to be a fair price.

I am sorry that you have so little meritorious merchandise. Wait until after the Davis Sale and I will have a few items which I'll be able to sell you at a reasonable markup so that you can replenish your stock and then in turn soak me a little more.

I certainly enjoyed your letter of the 18th. Only amateurs read Coin World, especially the For Sale columns in the back.

Your telling me how rare the 1864 $2½ is did nothing but cause me to regret having passed the coin, whereas previous ignorance was bliss and I felt no pain. I don't think demurring on the part of a customer for a dealer is really very smart, but of course the reciprocal is.

I agree - once you pay too much, it sets you up for life. With you by now I must have set myself up for a hundred lifetimes. Since I have paid you too much so many times in the past, why shouldn't I continue so doing in the future? My problem with you is that you now know how much you can get away with. I don't need salt for my wounds but rather balm as well as a solution to my problem.

I further agree, I damn well know that this man was insulting my intelligence. I'll show you a list when I see you. I certainly wouldn't be happy bying the coin and over paying. I know what this unhappiness feels like. You constantly remind me. I, too, do not like people to think I pay stupid prices as then they know I know nothing. Your point that usually people who ask too much know as little as people who ask not enough, is a brilliant one.

I don't agree that the 1882 $20 is more rare than the 1881, but for the sake of argument I will give you 10% over and above what it cost you (as long as it is not another one like the 1905).

I am coming up to New York the evening of Tuesday, January 30th. I plan to take Geoffrey North and his wife to dinner and the theatre the evening of February 1st. I would like for you to join us if your plans would permit. Let me know by return husky.

Sincerely,

Harry W. Bass, Jr.

Dear Harry:

Ha, Ha, so I am too serious. You should see this belly dancer I met. She doesn't think I'm serious enough when it comes to her. Anyway your last letter is my favorite so far. Your letter is still intact and I used the blank paper to write to my other clients. Your high grade paper was well used. In case you didn't know, the a telegram is by the word and a letter by the ounce.

Stock market down over 10 POINTS. I told you to stay out, why don't you listen. Your gold stocks look quite good.

Enclosed is invoice for 18 next coins. Send back the 1873 $5 so I can return it. If you have the time, send me a list of coins you especially want. Then I will put it aside for you. As things are now I can serve several people for the same coins and with some they need the coin for their collections. Since you are putting me in your "Book", (last I heard a full page but due to recent bidding it could have fell to a couple of lines) I'll help you with the balance but at this stage I have no idea of what you desire. (in coins I mean.)

Dear Harry:

Here is invoice for next lot. I picked out the coins I think you would like to see. When you finish with this lot and last lot, rush the stuff back to me with a check for the coins you want to buy, and I will send out another lot to you. I have been busy and I have no time to get out any more to you. As to my prices I am soorry but can't do any better, so no counter-offers this time unless they are higher than my prices. That would be a welcomed change. For many of the coins I have several other FISH waiting for them, so prices must be what I ask.

WASHINGTON.

SOME years ago in London the late Baron Rothschild was asked by a friend to explain the international financial system, gold and so on. He replied, "My dear chap, there are only two men in the world who understand the international financial system—a young economist in the Treasury and a rather junior man in the Bank of England. Unfortunately, they disagree."

If they were not aware before, Americans became acutely conscious of the international monetary system during the turbulence of the first half of the century.

each which dealers collectors alike can employ.

One important collector has submitted a check for $5,000 to be used only if the balance of $45,000 is obtained. He knows how important this service is to him. $5,000 would be a very cheap price to pay for security—for confidence in his collection now worth many times $5,000 and still growing. You are in no different a position. You must join in this crusade and there is one simple way to do it. Make a generous contribution to this cause—it's for you!

Dear Stanley:

Sorry to be so slow. My fourteen year old son has been in the hospital for the past three weeks with some rather severe vascular complications following a broken leg incurred while skiing four weeks ago. He is going to lose a portion of his foot, the toes specifically so far, and will be in the hospital more than likely for several months. I don't know whether I'll be able to make the next Stack's sale or not.

I am keeping thirteen of the twenty-three coins you last sent, and am returning the remaining ten. I think that the prices are too high practically across the board, but my dobber is too low to haggle. I'll just have to rely on your conscience.

Let me know what you want for the lot so I can get square with you once again. If you want to knock 10% off, I won't quibble.

Re: Coin consignment of May 14th, 1968

Dear Stan:

Your 1873 $10 ($5?) is intact and its whereabouts are known.

Of the $1 Gold pieces, I am retaining both for checking against Kosoff purchases.

Of the $2½ Gold pieces, I am returning the 1839-O, 1840-D, 1857, 1859-S, retaining the 1839-D and 1843-C for checking against Kosoff purchases, and purchasing the balance for a sub total of $790.00

Of the $5 Gold pieces, I am returning the 1841-C, 1850-C, 1858, 1872-CC, 1890, and the 1877-S, retaining the 1871-CC and the 1875-CC for checking against Kosoff purchases, for a sub total of $75.00.

Of the $10 Gold pieces, I am returning the 1845, 1847-O, 1851-O, 1857-O (priced a little too high), 1877-S, one 1883-CC, and the 1893-CC, retaining the 1859-S for checking against Kosoff purchases, for a sub total of $140.00.

Of the $20 Gold pieces, I am returning the 1852 as the price is ridiculous and the coin is worth no more than $90.00, and the 1872-CC, retaining the 1858 and the 1866 for checking against Kosoff purchases, and purchasing the balance for a sub total of $330.00.

Attached is my check in the amount of $1,335.00 to cover the above.

Dear Stan:

I greatly appreciate your bidding for me at last night's Parke-Bernet sale. As we discussed I am attaching a check in the amount of $461.00 representing five percent of $9,220.00.

I have reviewed my correspondence as you suggested and you are quite correct. I have repeatedly turned down the 1839-D Quarter Eagle as being over-priced. I now find that I need it though, so whatever is fair and reasonable and you insist upon will be its price.

I would appreciate your sending me immediately the lots which you purchased for yourself at the Parke-Bernet sale. I am very much interested in comparing them against my coins. I believe they are as follows:

32 - 35 - 88 - 122 - 124 - 129 - 131 - 137 - 150 (excluding the 1859-S) - 155 - 157 - 160 - 161 - 162 - 164 - 166, together with Lots 234 - 250 - 264 - 267 - 274.

Who knows, you might find a customer.

Mr. Stan Kesselman,

New York, New York 10024

Dear Stan:

May 1st, 1968 -

You wrote me sending consignment of 42 coins.

June 3rd, 1968 -

I wrote you re May 1st consignment. I stated I had kept 3 coins, ie: 1857-O $20, 1872 $20, 1859-S $10, for which I offered $180.00 rather than your price of $240.00. This is the mention of 3 coins that has been confusing.

May 14th, 1968 -

You sent consignment of 35 coins, including an 1871-CC $5 at $120.00 and an 1875-CC $5 at $200.00. I retained these for checking.

May 21st, 1968 -

My letter to you regarding your consignment of May 14th in which I retain two $1 pieces, two $2½ pieces, two $5 pieces (1871-CC and 1875-CC), one $10 piece and two $20 pieces, for a total of nine pieces.

June 3rd, 1968 -

My letter re your consignment of May 14th, I returned two $1 pieces, one $2½ piece, one $10 piece and one $20 piece for a total of five coins. I note that I am purchasing the one $20 piece and one $2½ piece. This leaves the two $5 pieces outstanding.

May 25th, 1968 -

Your letter inquiring of disposition of twelve coins. All now accounted for except two $5 pieces (I'm confused, hope you are also!)

Attached is check in the amount of $320.00 covering the purchase of

1	1871-CC	$5	$120.00
1	1875-CC	$5	$200.00

Letter No. 1
Re: Kesselman Consignment dated June 6th, 1968

Dear Stan:

Attached is a marked copy of your letter.

The 1871-CC and 1875-CC $5's are discussed in another letter and paid for.

I am returning the following coins:

1842-D	$2½
1872	$2½
1854-O	$3
1880	$3
1887	$3

You are scalping on these last two, as I have their equal or better within $10.00 of your cost at Parke-Bernet. Did you ever hear the story about the monkey who couldn't understand why he couldn't get his fist out of the jar?

1847-O	$5
1851-C	$5
1854-O	$5
1858	$5
1866-S w.m.	$5
1873-S	$5
1839 L.L.	$10
1848	$10
1849-O	$10	(1)
1853-O	$10
1855-S	$10
1856-S w.m.	$10
1870	$10
1870	$10
1870-S	$10	(Is this the one I previously returned for $175.00 credit against another?)
1871	$10
1872	$10
1874-CC	$10
1876-S	$10
1875-CC	$20	(Bid $150.00)

I have marked all of these envelopes on the reverse under the flap so that you and I both can tell which coins I have already seen.

The coins being returned total twenty-five. I guess that that means I am purchasing twenty-three per the attached sheet. My check to cover is attached.

Sincerely,

HARRY W. BASS, JR. TRUST ESTATE

Dear Harry:

Thanks for the call. What will you do with all the 1853/2 Eagles and the 1864-S $5 coins? Would you trade for my 1853/2 $20 gold? If you have the time draw me a picture of the 1853/2 so I know what to look for.

Enclosed is invoice for next lot. I priced the coins very fairly and on some I make $5. a coin. I paid a fortune for the 1863 $10 as it is the first business strike I have owned. I have had many 1877 and 1876 and 1853-O Eagles but this is the first 1863. I paid well over $700. for it so I don't make as much as I would like to. I figure it is about time to give you a break that you can afford. Don't want to kill the goose who laid the golden egg.

Take your time with these no rush.

Re: Your consignment of August 21st and September 25th

Dear Stan:

Regarding the August 21st consignment, I have examined all of the lots except the $20 gold which I am keeping. I am returning all of the remaining lots except for the 23 coins which I am purchasing for a total of $2,255.00. These are marked on the attached copy of your letter.

Regarding the consignment of September 25th, I have examined all of the lots except the $2½ gold coins which I am retaining. I am purchasing 7 coins, as marked on the attached letter copy for a total of $550.00.

See you at the Miles Sale. I appreciate your saying that you won't bid against me, inasmuch as there are a considerable number of coins that I will be attempting to acquire.

Sincerely,

HARRY W. BASS, JR. TRUST ESTATE

Dear Harry:

I don't mind the amount of the check, but to keep the coins over a month is rough.

Thanks for the work on the 1841 $5 I sent to you. If I buy it, let me know if you are interested in it and I'll send it to you first..

Thanks for your bids, but most are too low. I am accepting two of them, the 1849 eagle and 1877-CC $20 gold and they are enclosed..

I am very interested in buying coins at this time for a new client. If you decide to sell anything keep me informed.

Here is invoice for next lot.. See if 2-3 weeks will do as it is a small batch..

$20 Gold

~~1867~~ $200.

1877-CC $250. (your bid)

1901 $75.

1903 $75.

$2½ Gold

1838-C $250.

$5 Gold

~~1850-C~~ $60.

~~1884-CC~~ $160.

$10 Gold

~~1850~~ $60.

✶-1849 $50. your bid

~~1849~~ $60.

1854-S $100.

1860-S $450.

What is your best offer on the 1865-S Eagle from Nov. 21 Lot.
That was the last lot.

12 coins sent.

I do not expect you to buy much anymore as I understand you have most of the items at lower prices.. I still do not mind sending so long as I can get the coins back in time to sell to others. I dislike to keep people waiting once I have their money.

Very best wishes,

Stan Kesselman
